DETAILED ACTION

This is a first office action on the merits of patent application S. N. 10/006,658.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Objections

Claims 1 and 4 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 1, line 4, "cetnrical" should be --central--,

Claim 4, lines 2 and 3, "fraction" should be --friction--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 7 and 9 appears to be inaccurate as it contradicts the dimension recited in claim 1, lines 5-7.

Claim 18 recites the limitation "an up/down gear" in line 10. It is unclear if this is the same gear as recited in line 6 of the same claim.

Art Unit: 3681

Concerning claim 19, it is unclear what the phrase "lots of the number of winding" encompasses. For rejection purposes it was assumed that it referred to --a plurality of the number of windings--.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 8, 10-15 and 18, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the acknowledged prior art.

The acknowledged prior art discloses a central shaft (30), a pulley (32), an up down gear (36), a clutch spring (18 or 18'), a large gear (37) and a small gear (37').

Art Unit: 3681

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Winchell ('578).

Winchell discloses a clutch spring comprising an inner contacting portion (10), an outer contacting portion (1) and a connecting portion (12). Winchell however, shows input/output shaft instead of an up/down gear and a driving pulley. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a pulley and/or a gear as a torque transmission device since the examiner takes Official Notice of the equivalence of shaft and a pulley/gear for their use in torque transmission and the selection of any of these known equivalents to connect the clutch spring to an input/output member would be within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-6, 16-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 7 and 9 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Facsimile Transmission

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. Group 3600's facsimile number is (703) 305-3597. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MPEP 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitting by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Art Unit: 3681

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MPEP 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. (703) 305-3597) on _____

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate:

(Signature)

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MPEP 502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Smith ('764) discloses another clutch spring.

Mageoch ('873), Aarts et al. ('281), Yang ('418), Kasamatsu ('751), Hirano ('434), Okada ('589), Choi et al. ('151), Ahn ('777), Seo et al. ('738), Kim et al. ('476) and Hwang ('175) disclose other torque transmitting devices comprising switch gears and/or clutches.
